The main text, like the author names used Times New Roman font, 12 point for the Author names and 12 point for the remainder of the abstract. Type or paste your text into this file, but remember to keep the page margins the same as is set here which is 2.5 cm all around. Paragraphs are justified (straight-edged) on both left and right. Use single-line spacing and leave and present your abstract as one paragraph following the IMRAD rule. This helps your text to be read easily. The abstract deadline is April 15th, 2025. There is no fee for submission of an abstract, but if you do not register and pay the outstanding registration fee in full by the deadline of April 15th, the abstract will not appear in the program. The organizers expect that there will be more abstracts submitted with a preference for an oral presentation than can be accommodated in the program. They will inform those who submit abstracts for oral presentation whether the paper is scheduled for oral or poster presentation and will aim to do so by April 18th. Please note that there will be an arranged time for discussion of posters built into the conference schedule. The limit range for your abstract is 400-500 words. Abstracts that do not meet these formatting requirements will be returned. The organizing committee reserves the right to edit abstracts for clarity or correctness of English but will consult the author if any significant changes are needed.
